Target Market Opportunities

The Ludlow Mills Redevelopment District master plan dictates zoning by-right which is highly flexible for most industrial and commercial purposes, including light industrial, precision manufacturing, small scale warehousing/storage, fitness and recreation, brewing or distilleries, and artist or creative/maker spaces. These unique spaces are ideal for a variety of uses and have proven to be a long-term home for many of our business tenants, including a brewery, storage, and small-scale manufacturing. The stockhouses are move-in ready with slight variations on infrastructure and features that our team can talk you through to find the best fit for your business needs.
